GUARANTEE

Pursuant to the PJ Subscription Agreement, the First Guarantor (being the holding company of PJ Partners and is principally engaged in operation and management of restaurants in Tokyo) and the Second Guarantor (being the single largest shareholder of the First Guarantor) had executed the Deed of Guarantee, whereby the Guarantors guaranteed to Marvel Success the due and punctual performance and observance by PJ Partners of all its obligations under the PJ Convertible Bond.

SUPPLEMENTAL DEED

After recent negotiation between the parties, Marvel Success executed the Supplemental Deed with PJ Partners on 10 February 2012, pursuant to which the maturity date of the PJ Convertible Bond has been extended for one year from the second anniversary to the third anniversary of the date of issue of the PJ Convertible Bond.

The conversion period under the PJ Convertible Bond, which is between the date immediately following the issue of the PJ Convertible Bond and the maturity date (both dates inclusive), will be extended accordingly.

Save and except the amendment to the maturity date pursuant to the Supplemental Deed, all the terms and conditions in the PJ Convertible Bond remain unchanged, valid and in full force.

The Guarantors had confirmed with Marvel Success that all the terms and provisions under the Deed of Guarantee and all their obligations and liabilities under the Deed of Guarantee shall remain unchanged, valid and in full force, notwithstanding the amendment to the terms and conditions of the PJ Convertible Bond as provided in the Supplemental Deed.

To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief and having made all reasonable enquiries, PJ Partners and the Guarantors and the respective ultimate beneficial owners of PJ Partners and the First Guarantor are Independent Third Parties.

REASON FOR AND BENEFIT OF THE TRANSACTION

Under the terms of the PJ Convertible Bond, Marvel Success, through exercising the conversion rights attaching to the PJ Convertible Bond, will be able to participate in the business of PJ Partners and share its profits by holding 25% to 75% of its shareholding depending on the net asset value per share and price earning multiple of PJ Partners at the time of conversion pursuant to the terms and conditions of the PJ Subscription Agreement. As the maturity date under the original terms and conditions of the PJ Convertible Bond will soon expire and in order to give greater flexibility to the Group in making investment decision on whether and when to exercise the conversion rights attached to the PJ Convertible Bond, the Supplemental Deed was proposed and executed by the parties whereby the maturity date under the PJ Convertible Bond will be extended for one year to 10 February 2013 and the conversion period will accordingly be extended for one year to 10 February 2013.

Pursuant to the Supplemental Deed, other terms of the PJ Convertible Bond, including the terms of conversion, remain unchanged. In other words, should the Company choose to exercise the conversion rights, the mechanism for determining the conversion price remains the same. The Supplemental Deed is for the benefit of the Group by enhancing the time value of the conversion option attached to the PJ Convertible Bond. It also provides the management of the Company a longer time period to evaluate and observe the business potential of PJ Partners, and therefore allows the management to make a more prudent decision.

The Board considers that such extension of time is beneficial to the Group and will offer the Group greater flexibility in making investment decision, having regard to the business performance and development of PJ Partners during the extension period.

The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the subscription of the PJ Convertible Bond pursuant to the PJ Subscription Agreement, the terms of the PJ Convertible Bond as amended by the Supplemental Deed and the transactions contemplated thereunder were negotiated on an arm's length basis between the parties and are on normal commercial terms and fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE GEM LISTING RULES

As mentioned in the Previous Announcement, the size of the subscription of the PJ Convertible Bond exceeds 5% but does not exceed 25% of each of the applicable percentage ratios under Chapter 19 of the GEM Listing Rules.
